A. APPRAISAL REPORT AND DATA DELIVERY TO FHA

This document provides guidance to appraisers who are preparing residential appraisal reports utilizing the industry standard forms and to lenders who are submitting the appraiser’s completed reports to FHA. FHA policy requires that the appraisal report be submitted on the form appropriate for the property type.

FHA has procured an Electronic Appraisal Delivery (EAD) system, which provides portal to access all HUD approved lenders. The solution will allow electronic appraisal files to be uploaded to a central location, processed, and checked against an FHA defined rule set. The original file, as well as the results of the scoring process will then be securely transferred to HUD servers.

For the EAD portal, FHA will only accept appraisals in the Mortgage Information Standards Maintenance Organization (MISMO) 2.6 with embedded PDF format, as created directly by the appraiser (first generation). FHA does not accept private or proprietary data formats or appraisal reports that have been manipulated or “translated by anyone or any process.

The EAD shall apply business rules, edits and handle overrides, based on the FHA’s requirements for rule sets that are applied to appraisals. The portal will securely transmit discrepancies, findings, and other feedback messages to users based on FHA’s requirements.

The appraiser is required to follow HUD/FHA guidance and comply with the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP) when completing appraisals of property used as security for FHA-insured mortgages. The Fannie Mae Form 1004 MC/Freddie Mac Form 71, Market Conditions Addendum to the Appraisal Report, must be completed for every appraisal. The following table provides a list of the form type and MISMO format required for each property type.

Property/Assignment Type	Acceptable Reporting Form
Single Family, Detached, Attached or Semi-Detached Residential Property	Fannie Mae Form 1004/Freddie Mac Form 70 , Uniform Residential Appraisal Report ; MISMO 2.6 GSE format

Compliance or Final Inspection for Existing Property	Certificate of Completion Section of Fannie Mae Form 1004D/Freddie Mac Form 442 , Appraisal Update and/or Completion Report ; MISMO 2.6 Errata 1 format

The following sections provide instructions for completion of the forms and providing the data needed by FHA.

B. UNIFORM RESIDENTIAL APPRAISAL REPORT FORM FOR ONE FAMILY RESIDENTIAL PROPERTIES

This section provides specific instructions for completing the Fannie Mae Form 1004/Freddie Mac Form 70, Uniform Residential Appraisal Report (URAR). The Federal Housing Administration (FHA) requires that this form be submitted in the Mortgage Industry Standards Maintenance Organization (MISMO) 2.6 Government-Sponsored Enterprise (GSE) format, which is an Extensible Markup Language (XML) document with an embedded Portable Document Format (PDF) as created by the appraiser.

This report form is designed to report an appraisal of a one-unit property or a one-unit property with an accessory unit, including a unit in a Planned Unit Development (PUD), based on an interior and exterior inspection of the subject property. This form is not designed to report an appraisal of Manufactured Housing or a unit in a condominium or cooperative project.

1. Subject Section

This section provides the factual data to identify the property, and the parties to the appraisal process. The FHA case number together with the Borrower and/or property information will be supplied by the mortgagee/client who engages the appraiser.

The following table provides instruction for completing the “Subject” section of the form.

2. Contract Section

This section must be completed when the appraisal assignment involves a purchase transaction, otherwise enter “N/A” for not applicable. FHA requires that the appraiser be provided with a complete copy of the ratified sales contract, including all addenda, for the subject property.

The contract provides the contract price (accepted offer), date of sale, and all financial terms implicit in the offer. If unable to obtain this information, the appraiser is to state what efforts were made to obtain it.

The following table provides instruction for completing the “Contract” section of the report form.

3. Neighborhood Section

This section reflects the area surrounding the subject property. The appraiser must observe neighborhood characteristics and surrounding properties to make determinations that will be incorporated into the valuation of the subject property. In all instances, the appraiser must mark the appropriate box for each line in the “Neighborhood Characteristics” and “Housing Trends” sections. Failure to note conditions that may adversely affect the value of the property is poor appraisal practice and violates the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP).

The following table provides instruction for completing the “Neighborhood” section of the form. NOTE: Race and the racial composition of the neighborhood are not appraisal factors.

Local market conditions and research will indicate the desirability of this feature. The appraiser must provide an explanation of the feature, the level of market acceptance or preference, and the Contributory Value of the combined space.

h. Room Count

Room design and count should reflect local market expectations.

To determine whether one or two rooms should be counted, hypothetically insert a wall to separate the two areas that have been built as one; if the residents can use the resulting two rooms with the same or more utility without increased inconvenience, count the room as two.

If the hypothetical wall would result in a lack of utility and increased inconvenience, count the room as one. The room count typically includes a living room (LR), dining room (DR), kitchen (KT), den (DN), recreation room (REC) and one or more bedrooms (BR). Typically, the foyer, bath and laundry room are not counted as rooms. A room is a livable area with a specific use.

The completion of this section is critical to the opinion of Market Value. The appraiser must discuss all adverse conditions and observed physical and functional deficiencies noted. If necessary, use the “Additional Comments” section of the form report, or an addendum, for additional discussion or description.

Appraisers must follow UAD instructions for formatting the first part of this section, and must clearly communicate the observations, analyses, and conclusions.

7. Sales Comparison Approach Section

a. Comparable Data Pool

The appraiser is required to report the number of comparable properties currently offered for sale, as of the effective date of the appraisal, and the number of comparable sales in the subject neighborhood, within 12 months of the effective date of the appraisal, in this section. Unlike the neighborhood price data, which includes all sales, this section focuses only on those properties that are comparable to the subject, not the universe of sales.

The following table provides instruction for completing the “Sales and Listing” portion of the “Sales Comparison Approach” section of the report form.

c. Factual Data and Value Adjustments in Direct Sales Comparison Grid

Adjustments are made to the price of the comparable properties for price-influencing dissimilarities between each comparable and the subject property. Not all dissimilarities require adjustment because not all dissimilarities achieve price differentials in the market. All adjustments must be extracted from and supported by the actions of the market.

For each adjustment item, enter the description of the adjustment and whether it is an upward or downward adjustment. Do not make an adjustment unless it has a material effect on value.

Adjustments must be reasonable and not excessive.

Ensure that abbreviated descriptions are readily recognizable by the intended users.

The following table shows the individual field descriptions of the sales comparison grid along with the FHA protocol for that section.

9. Additional Comments Section

These comment lines provide additional space for the appraiser to fully describe any item, area or condition where the commentary exceeds the space provided in other sections of the report. It is recommended that any information carried forward to the “Additional Comments” section, or an addendum if needed, follows the sequence of the form with a proper heading identifying said section.

For example, the “Neighborhood Market Conditions” comments exceed the space provided on the form. In that case, on page 1 in “Neighborhood Market Conditions” enter “See additional comments;” in the “Additional Comments” section enter the heading “Neighborhood Market Conditions” and provide the narrative in this section.

Follow the same procedure for any section of the report where commentary exceeds the space provided. This will provide the reader with the proper identification and linkage of additional comments together with a logical flow of information in a standardized reporting format.

10. Cost Approach Section

The cost approach is recognized as a valid method of valuation, and must be properly performed. If the subject property is proposed or new construction, or the cost approach is known in the market area as a valid and useful method of valuation, the appraiser must complete the cost approach. It is not required for every FHA appraisal assignment if the appraiser determines that the cost approach is not necessary for credible assignment results. For more information, see the Cost Approach to Value section in the 4000.1 FHA Single Family Housing Policy Handbook.

a. Requirements for Remaining Economic Life

State the Remaining Economic Life as a single number or as a range. This line must be completed for every FHA appraisal whether or not the cost approach is completed. An explanation is required if the remaining economic life is less than 30 years.

The following table provides a list of the fields within the “Cost Approach” section of the form along with the related protocol. The appraiser is reminded to provide adequate information for the mortgagee/client to replicate the below cost figures and calculations.

If yes, describe the rental terms and options.	If the common elements are leased to or by the HOA, describe the rental terms and options.
Describe common elements and recreational facilities.	What are the common elements provided to residents?

C. MANUFACTURED HOME APPRAISAL REPORT

This section provides specific instructions for completing the Fannie Mae Form 1004C/Freddie Mac Form 70B, Manufactured Home Appraisal Report. FHA requires that this report be submitted in the MISMO 2.6 Errata 1, which is an XML document with embedded PDF as created by the appraiser.

This report form is designed to report an appraisal of one-unit Manufactured Housing, including a unit in a PUD, based on an interior and exterior inspection of the subject property.

The appraisal reporting requirements for a Manufactured Housing unit under a condominium regime are:

1. Appraisals must be reported on the Fannie Mae Form 1004C/Freddie Mac Form 70B, Manufactured Home Appraisal Report.
2. The subject Condominium Project must be inspected and the “Project Information” section of the Fannie Mae Form 1073/Freddie Mac Form 465, Individual Condominium Unit Appraisal Report, must be completed and included as an addendum to the appraisal report.
3. Comparable sales must be condominium Manufactured Housing. Detailed explanations must be provided when search parameters are expanded due to the lack of comparable sales in the subject market area.

Appraisers are reminded to pay particular attention to Appraiser’s Certifications #8 and #11 of the Manufactured Home Appraisal Report and the Competency Rule of USPAP, which address an appraiser’s familiarity with a specific property type.

1. Subject Section

2. Contract Section

This section must be completed when the appraisal assignment involves a purchase transaction; otherwise enter “N/A” for not applicable. FHA requires that the appraiser be provided with a complete copy of the ratified sales contract, including all addenda, for the subject property. It provides the agreed-on contract price (accepted offer), date of sale, and all financial terms implicit in the offer. If unable to obtain this information, the appraiser is to state what efforts were made to obtain it.

3. Neighborhood Section

This section reflects the area surrounding the subject property. The appraiser must observe neighborhood characteristics and surrounding properties to make determinations that will be incorporated into the valuation of the subject property. In all instances, the appraiser must mark the appropriate box for each line in the “Neighborhood Characteristics” and “Housing Trends” sections. Failure to note conditions that may adversely affect the value of the property violates the USPAP.

NOTE: Race and the racial composition of the neighborhood are not appraisal factors.

a. Neighborhood Boundaries

The appraiser must clearly define the boundaries – north, south, east and west – of the subject’s neighborhood. Providing a description of neighborhood boundaries by physical features such as streets, rail lines, other man-made barriers, or well-defined natural barriers (e.g., rivers, lakes, etc.) details the makeup and understanding regarding neighborhood composition.

5. Leasehold Interest/Ground Rent Section

If the property is subject to Ground Rent, the appraiser must include an analysis of the terms of the lease, including the term of lease, renewal options, right of redemption, capitalization rate, date of expiration, etc. The mortgagee is responsible for ensuring that the appraiser has a copy of the deed or lease for analysis, and that a copy is included in the loan file.

The heating/cooling certification and insulation maps may be on the data plate, or they may be in separate documentation provided with the house. The data plate is not required to include the heating and cooling certification. Manufacturers and in-plant inspection agencies are not required to maintain the heating and cooling certification information.

6. Improvements Section

This section describes the subject improvements. Accurately report the conditions observed. Describe needed repairs, or the existence of any functional or external obsolescence. Enter factual information on each of the lines provided and report the conclusions. Consider all aspects of the physical description and reconcile them in the opinion of Market Value.

General Description
Field	Protocol
Units/Additions	Mark the appropriate box. The Manufactured Home Appraisal Report is designed solely for the valuation of a one-unit Manufactured House. The appraiser is to indicate if the original manufactured home (as delivered and installed) to the site has been altered or added on to by marking the box for additions.
of Stories	Enter the number of stories above grade, including half stories. Format required is Numeric, to 2 decimal places. Do not include the basement.
Design (Style)	Enter a brief description of the house design style using historical or contemporary fashion. For example: Cape Cod, bi-level, split level, split foyer, colonial, town house, etc. Do not use the builder's model name. Avoid generic descriptions such as traditional or conventional.
of Sections	Mark the appropriate box denoting the number of sections. Mark "Other" if the subject is made up of four or more sections.
Type	Mark the box that identifies the type of dwelling: "Det." (Detached); "Att." (Attached); "S-Det." (Semi-Detached); or "End Unit" (the end unit of a group of row houses or townhouses).
Stage of Construction	Mark the box signifying the stage of construction: "Existing;" "Proposed;" or "New Construction" (new construction would only apply to the foundation).
Year Built	Insert the year the subject was completed. Format required is YYYY For under construction or proposed construction Enter Current Year (New FHA Specific Requirement)
Effective Age (Yrs.)	Enter the effective age of the improvements as a number only. Do not enter text. Example: 25 A range is acceptable. Do not enter text. Example 15-20 The effective age reflects the condition of the property relative to similar competitive properties. The effective age may be greater than, less than or equal to the actual age. Note any significant difference between the actual and effective ages and explain in the "Condition of Property" comments section.

a. Reporting Requirements for Attic

The appraiser is required to inspect the attic. Enter the attic and observe the interior for insulation, ventilation (fan, vent, window), and the condition of the roof structure. Note any deficient materials, leaks or readily observable evidence of significant water damage, structural problems, previous fire damage, exposed and frayed wiring, or any other health and safety deficiencies. If any deficiencies exist, condition the appraisal on their repair or inspection, and prepare the appraisal “subject to repairs” and/or “subject to inspection.”

An inspection performed in accordance with these guidelines is visual and is not technically exhaustive. These guidelines are applicable to buildings with four or less Dwelling Units and their related property improvements.

Field	Protocol
None	Enter ‘X’ if there is no attic.
Drop Stair	Enter “X” if this item exists.
Stairs	Enter “X” if this item exists.
Floor	Enter “X” if this item exists.
Scuttle	Enter “X” if this item exists.
Finished	Enter “X” if this item exists.
Heated	Enter “X” if the attic is heated.

b. Foundation

The appraiser is required to inspect the foundation and basement. The appraiser must address all visible deficiencies and may require a recommendation for an inspection. Consider deferred maintenance and physical deterioration in the valuation process.

c. Basement

Generally, basements may be partially or completely below grade (ground level). Do not count the basement in the finished GLA at the grade level. The information provided must be consistent with the description in the “Foundation” section.

d. Mechanical Systems

An appraiser must examine the mechanical, plumbing and electrical systems of the subject property to ensure that they are in proper working order. This examination entails turning on the applicable systems and observing their performance. Electrical, plumbing and/or heating/cooling certifications may be called for by the appraiser who cannot determine if one or all of these systems are working properly. An appraiser should not arbitrarily call for such certifications. However, they are still responsible for checking on the adequacy of these systems at the time of appraisal.

i. Room Count and Gross Living Area

To be eligible for FHA financing, Manufactured Housing must have a GLA of no less than 400 square feet. If smaller, the appraiser must stop work and contact the mortgagee.

Room design and count should reflect local market expectations. To determine whether one or two rooms should be counted, hypothetically insert a wall to separate the two areas that have been built as one; if the residents can use the resulting two rooms with the same or more utility without increased inconvenience, count the room as two. If the hypothetical wall would result in a lack of utility and increased inconvenience, count the room as one.

The room count typically includes a living room (LR), dining room (DR), kitchen (KT), den (DN), recreation room (REC) and one or more bedrooms (BR). Typically, the foyer, bath and laundry room are not counted as rooms. A room is a livable area with a specific use.

j. Narrative Comments

The completion of this section is critical to supporting the opinion of Market Value. The appraiser must discuss all adverse conditions and observed physical and functional deficiencies noted. If necessary, use the “Additional Comments” section of the form report, or an addendum, for additional discussion or description.

7. Cost Approach Section

The appraiser is only required to complete the cost approach if the manufactured home is new construction (initial sale from manufacturer). If the manufactured home is over one year old and the retailer’s invoice, stating the retail purchase price of the home, is available, a copy of the invoice must be appended to the appraisal report. If the manufactured home is New Construction Less than One Year Old but the title has been re-conveyed after the initial sale, or if the manufactured home is over a year old, the cost approach is not required. For cost estimates, the appraiser must rely upon a nationally published cost service such as the National Automobile Dealers Association (N.A.D.A.) Manufactured Housing Appraisal Guide, the Marshall & Swift Residential Cost Handbook or other published data.

a. Adjustments to Comparable Properties

Adjustments are made to the prices of the sale properties for price-influencing dissimilarities between each sale and the subject property. Not all dissimilarities require adjustment because not all dissimilarities achieve price differentials in the market. All adjustments must be extracted from the market and supported by the actions of the market.

For each adjustment item, enter the description of the adjustment and whether it is an upward or downward adjustment. Do not make an adjustment unless it has a material effect on value.

Adjustments must be reasonable and not excessive.

10. Additional Comments Section

These comment lines provide additional space for the appraiser to fully describe any item, area or condition where the commentary exceeds the space provided in other sections of the report. It is recommended that any information carried forward to the “Additional Comments” section, or an addendum if needed, follow the sequence of the form with a proper heading identifying said section.

For example, the “Neighborhood Market Conditions” comments exceed the space provided on the form. In that case, on page 1 in “Neighborhood Market Conditions” enter “See additional comments;” in the “Additional Comments” section enter the heading “Neighborhood Market Conditions” and provide the narrative in this section.

Follow the same procedure for any section of the report where commentary exceeds the space provided. This will provide the reader with the proper identification and linkage of additional comments together with a logical flow of information in a standardized reporting format.

D. INDIVIDUAL CONDOMINIUM UNIT APPRAISAL REPORT

This section provides specific instructions for completing the Fannie Mae Form 1073/Freddie Mac Form 465, Individual Condominium Unit Appraisal Report. FHA requires that this report be submitted in the MISMO 2.6 GSE format, which is an XML document with embedded PDF as created by the appraiser.

This report form is designed to report an appraisal of a unit in a Condominium Project or a condominium unit in a PUD based on an interior and exterior inspection of the subject property. This form is not designed to report an appraisal of Manufactured Housing or a unit in a cooperative project.

The appraisal reporting requirements for a Manufactured Housing unit under a condominium regime are:

1. Appraisals must be reported on the Fannie Mae Form 1004C/Freddie Mac Form 70B, Manufactured Home Appraisal Report.
2. The subject Condominium Project must be inspected and the “Project Information” section of the Fannie Mae Form 1073/Freddie Mac Form 465, Individual Condominium Unit Appraisal Report, must be completed and included as an addendum to the appraisal report.
3. Comparable sales must be condominium Manufactured Housing. Detailed explanations must be provided when search parameters are expanded due to the lack of comparable sales in the subject market area.

10. Sales Comparison Approach Section

The appraiser is required to report the number of comparable properties currently offered for sale, as of the effective date of the appraisal, and the number of comparable sales in the subject neighborhood, within 12 months of the effective date of the appraisal, in this section. Unlike the neighborhood price data, which includes all sales, this section focuses only on those properties that are comparable to the subject, not the universe of sales.

If there was difficulty in locating comparable properties, for example, the subject is a “high-rise” and it is the only sale within the project in the past 12 months, and one or more of the comparable properties was a “mid-rise” or “garden style”, then for the purposes of this section, all such properties in the subject’s neighborhood are to be treated as comparable and counted.

Refer to the Comparable Sales section in the 4000.1 FHA Single Family Housing Policy Handbook.

b. Value Adjustments

Adjustments are made to the price of the sale properties for price-influencing dissimilarities between each sale and the subject property. Not all dissimilarities require adjustment because not all dissimilarities achieve price differentials in the market. All adjustments must be extracted from and supported by the actions of the market.

For each adjustment item, enter the description of the adjustment and whether it is an upward or downward adjustment. Do not make an adjustment unless it has a material effect on value.

The following table shows the individual field descriptions of the sales comparison grid along with the FHA protocol for that section.

11. Income Approach Section

If the market contains sufficient data for this approach to be relevant, then the income approach must be completed. The GRM factor must be market derived, supported, and applied to the market rent for the subject. Refer to the Income Approach to Value section in the 4000.1 FHA Single Family Housing Policy Handbook.

Income Approach To Value
Field	Protocol
Estimated Monthly Market Rent	Enter the subject’s estimated market rent and multiply it by the GRM (the ratio between sales price and gross monthly Rental Income).
Summary of Income Approach	Provide support for the market rent and GRM if developed.
Income Approach	If not developed, leave blank.

If this approach was not developed or included in the report, the appraiser must provide a reason why this approach was not utilized and report whether the lack of this approach adversely affects the credibility of the appraisal.

12. Reconciliation and Conditions of Value Estimate Section

The appraiser must consider all appropriate approaches to value, and all information relevant to the subject property and the market conditions in the opinion of Market Value.

If there is insufficient space in the “Reconciliation” section to list and describe any “repairs, alterations or required inspections” noted, then the appraiser is instructed to insert a reference in the “Reconciliation” section, “see addendum,” and list and describe the items under the heading “Repairs, Alterations, Required Inspections.”

If repairs or alterations are required, the appraiser must indicate the extent of repairs and note this in the appropriate section of the appraisal, in an addendum, under the heading of “Reconciliation – Required Repairs,” listing the repairs noted together with an estimated cost to cure.

The appraiser must indicate the reasoning for any required inspections and note this in the appropriate section of the appraisal, in an addendum, under the heading of “Reconciliation – Required Inspection,” listing the required inspections.

The value “subject to completion per plans and specifications,” “subject to the following repairs or alterations,” or “subject to the following required inspection” must be consistent with the subject property condition(s) described in the corresponding section of the report.

13. Additional Comments Section

It may become necessary to include commentary that carries beyond the provided space of the appraisal reporting form. The use of an addendum provides the additional space for the appraiser to fully describe any item, area or condition where the commentary exceeds the space provided in other sections of the report. It is recommended that any information carried forward to the addendum, if needed, follow the sequence of the form with a proper heading identifying said section.

For example, the “Neighborhood Market Conditions” comments exceed the space provided on the form. In that case, on page 1 in “Neighborhood Market Conditions” enter “See addendum,” and in the addendum enter the heading “Neighborhood Market Conditions,” and provide the narrative in this section. Follow the same procedure for any section of the report where commentary exceeds the space provided. This will provide the reader with the proper identification and linkage of additional comments together with a logical flow of information in a standardized reporting format.

E. SMALL RESIDENTIAL INCOME PROPERTY (TWO TO FOUR UNITS) APPRAISAL REPORT

1. Introduction to the Fannie Mae Form 1025/Freddie Mac Form 72

This section provides specific instructions for completing the Small Residential Income Property Appraisal Report Fannie Mae Form 1025/Freddie Mac Form 72. FHA requires that this report be submitted in the MISMO 2.6 Errata 1, which is an XML document with embedded PDF as created by the appraiser.

This report form is designed to report an appraisal of a two-to four-unit property, including a two-to four-unit property in a PUD, based on an interior and exterior inspection of the subject property. A two-to four-unit property located in a Condominium Project must be appraised using the Individual Condominium Unit Appraisal Report. Fannie Mae Form 1025/Freddie Mac Form 72 is not designed to report an appraisal of manufactured home; therefore, where one or more of the units is Manufactured Housing, the appraiser is required to complete the following sections of the Manufactured Home Appraisal Report: “HUD Data Plate” and “Improvements.”

2. Subject Property Data Section

This section provides the factual data to identify the property and the parties to the appraisal process. The FHA case number together with the Borrower and/or property information will be supplied by the mortgagee/client who engages the appraiser.

This section must be completed when the appraisal assignment involves a purchase transaction; otherwise enter “N/A” for not applicable. FHA requires that the appraiser be provided with a complete copy of the ratified sales contract, including all addenda, for the subject property. It provides the agreed-on contract price (accepted offer), date of sale, and all financial terms implicit in the offer. If unable to obtain this information, the appraiser is to state what efforts were made to obtain it.

4. Neighborhood Analysis Section

This section reflects the area surrounding the subject property. The appraiser must observe neighborhood characteristics and surrounding properties to make determinations that will be incorporated into the valuation of the subject property. In all instances, the appraiser must mark the appropriate box for each line in the “Neighborhood Characteristics” and “Housing Trends” sections. Failure to note conditions that may adversely affect the value of the property is poor appraisal practice and violates the USPAP.

NOTE: Race and the racial composition of the neighborhood are not appraisal factors.

d. Mechanical Systems

An appraiser must examine the mechanical, plumbing and electrical systems of the subject property to ensure that they are in proper working order. This examination entails turning on the applicable systems and observing their performance. Electrical, plumbing and/or heating/cooling certifications may be called for by the appraiser when they cannot determine if one or all of these systems are working properly. An appraiser should not arbitrarily call for such certifications. However, the appraiser is still responsible for checking the functionality of these systems at the time of appraisal. Note the type of heating and cooling for each unit, if different.

11. Sales Comparison Approach Section

The appraiser is required to report the number of comparable properties currently offered for sale, as of the effective date of the appraisal, and the number of comparable sales in the subject neighborhood, within 12 months of the effective date of the appraisal, in this section. Unlike the neighborhood price data, which includes all sales, this section focuses only on those properties that are comparable to the subject, not the universe of sales.

If there was difficulty in locating comparable properties, e.g., the subject is a four-unit property and one or more of the comparable properties was a two- or three-unit property, etc., then for the purposes of this section, all such properties in the subject’s neighborhood are to be treated as comparable and counted.

a. Value Adjustments

Adjustments are made to the price of the sale properties for price-influencing dissimilarities between each sale and the subject property. Not all dissimilarities require adjustment because not all dissimilarities achieve price differentials in the market. All adjustments must be extracted from and supported by the actions of the market.

For each adjustment item, enter the description of the adjustment and whether it is an upward or downward adjustment. Do not make an adjustment unless it has a material effect on value. Make adjustments only if the dissimilarity has a noticeable effect on the value. Small differences do not usually require adjustments.

14. Additional Comments Section

These comment lines provide additional space for the appraiser to fully describe any item, area or condition where the commentary exceeds the space provided in other sections of the report. It is recommended that any information carried forward to the “Additional Comments” section, or an addendum if needed, follow the sequence of the form with a proper heading identifying said section.

For example, the “Neighborhood Market Conditions” comments exceed the space provided on the form. In that case, on page 1 in “Neighborhood Market Conditions” enter “See additional comments;” in the “Additional Comments” section enter the heading “Neighborhood Market Conditions” and provide the narrative in this section. Follow the same procedure for any section of the report where commentary exceeds the space provided. This will provide the reader with the proper identification and linkage of additional comments together with a logical flow of information in a standardized reporting format.

15. Cost Approach Section

If the subject property is New Construction Less than One Year Old, or the cost approach is recognized in the market as a basis for pricing, the appraiser may complete the cost approach; however, it is not required for an FHA appraisal. The square foot method is to be used.

16. Planned Unit Development Information Section

A PUD is a project that includes common property and improvements owned and maintained by an owners’ association for the use and benefit of the individual units in the subdivision. If not applicable, leave blank.

Project Information for PUDs (if applicable)
Field	Protocol
Developer/Builder in control of HOA	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Enter an “X” in the box indicating whether the developer/builder is in control of the HOA.</li> </ul>
Unit Type(s)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Enter an “X” in the box indicating unit type: “Detached” or “Attached.”</li> </ul>

Provide the following information for PUDs only if the developer is in control of the HOA and the subject property is an attached Dwelling Unit. The information requested is self-explanatory. Appraisers may choose to answer the last question referencing common elements and recreational facilities in support of a location adjustment regardless of dwelling style.

Field	Protocol
Legal name of project	Report the legal name.
Total number of phases	Report the number of phases, if more than one.
Total number of units	Report the total number of units in the project.
Total number of units sold	Report the total number of units sold. (This is to identify if the developer was unsuccessful in selling all of the units.)
Total units rented	Report the total units rented if available.
Total units for sale	Report the total number of units listed for sale (include For Sale by Owner).
Data source(s)	Provide source(s) of information, e.g., the HOA board, management company, verification with public records, etc.
